L2L Convention

This weekend 69 of us will be in Atlanta participating in the National L2L convention. I really appreciate all of the young people and their parents and other adults being involved in this great ministry. I appreciate the elders in allowing me the time to be on the L2L board and help with the conventions. Thousands of young people through the last forty-eight years have been blessed and made stronger spiritually by this work. This year over 20,000 people will be gathering for the six conventions. There will be foreign conventions this year in Romania and the Philippines. A new convention will begin in California this May, and there are some possibilities of starting a convention in Denver, Colorado in the near future.

Guest Speaker

While Todd and I are away in Atlanta, Barry Binon will speak for us Sunday morning. Many of you I'm sure will remember Barry. Barry worked with us as an associate minister some fifteen years ago. Todd will be back to speak Sunday night. I look forward to being back in the pulpit Sunday week as we continue with our series "Vanishing Values" and "In the Beginning II".

Dates to Remember

April 18, will be our next M & M. We have just two more Monday/Ministry nights before we break for the summer. Our next Super Sunday will be May 29. Vacation Bible School will be June 13-16. Also, Jared Kelly will begin his work with us as a summer intern the last of May.

The Church Office will be closed this Friday, March 25.

Will you and your family be here Sunday?

Our L2L team departs for Atlanta tomorrow.

Please pray for our safe travel. We return Sunday afternoon, March 27. After our evening service, next Sunday, April 3, we will honor our young people participating both here and at convention and our puppet teams will present their skits!. Thanks for all your support and encouragement!
