Mt. Zion Meeting

I have certainly enjoyed the meeting at the Mt. Zion church in Lauderdale County. It is always good to go back into the area in which you grew up and see many that were in High School with you. We have had several restorations, and I finish up tonight. I look forward to being back in the pulpit Sunday. We will continue our series on love, "The Greatest Thing on Earth".

Coming Men Events

We have two men's events coming up in August! The first one will be our Men's Devo that will be on August 13. This will be at the home of Tony Parker beginning at 6:30 p.m. The second event is our new "Sons of the King". This will be on Saturday, August 17 at the Farmer's Market. It will be from 4 – 8 p.m. and have various activities.

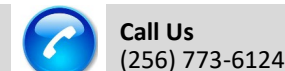

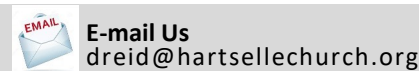

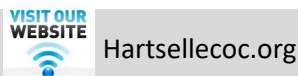

Hartselle Preschool

The time is getting close for our preschool to begin preparations for a new school year. If you know of anyone who would like information about the school, let them know they can call the church office. Our preschool has been a blessing to this church for the last several years. Sandra Shaneyfelt can answer questions you might have. I know we are asking you to help in several areas right now, but don't forget the school supplies for our own Lighthouse Preschool. This is a big help to our teachers.

Wednesday Nights

We will finish up our Wednesday night summer series next week. Chris Lemay will be our final speaker for the summer. Our fifth Wednesday night singing will be on July 31. Regular adult classes will begin on Wednesday night August 7.

Barrier's Blog

Within the Lord's church we are seeing the effects of depression can have on people. Often times we ignore the problem or those suffering are too embarrassed or scared to let others know about the pain they are in. The church should be a place where we feel comfortable seeking help for whatever we are going through. With that being said below is a helpful article from Mike Riley on the subject of depression: At some time in our life, we will more than likely be affected by depression. Some common signs and symptoms of depression include feelings of hopelessness, pessimism, worthlessness, and helplessness.

As an example, the prophet Elijah exhibited a deep sense of despondency, discouragement, and sadness that is linked to personal powerlessness and loss of meaning and enthusiasm for life. After defeating the prophets of Baal, he received a death threat from Jezebel (1 Kings 19:2-3). His hope was shattered, and despondency set in to the point that he wanted to die (1 Kings 19:4). However, God helped Elijah deal with his despondency in the following ways: · The Lord did not rebuke him for his despondency, but sent an angel to provide for his physical needs (1 Kings 19:5-8).

The Lord revealed Himself and reminded Elijah that He was quietly working among His people (1 Kings 19:11-14). · He renewed Elijah's mission by giving him new orders (1 Kings 19:15-17).

God reminded Elijah that he wasn't alone (1 Kings 19:18; cf. Romans 11:4).

In times of dark discouragement, God will lead us out of depression by giving us a new spiritual vision, goals to achieve, and the power to achieve them (Luke 24:36-49; Acts 1:4-8.)

We look forward to seeing you Sunday!

In Him, Todd
