Who will be in heaven? You've probably heard this question before. Sometimes it's an honest question from someone who really wants to know. Other times it's a trap question designed to make someone give an answer so that others can "prove" how judgmental Christians are.

The truth is we can know exactly who is going to heaven. How you ask? Simple, from the only authority we have on spiritual matters, God's Word. If you've ever wondered, here is who is going to heaven...

In Revelation 21:6-8 the bible tells us that the thirsty (6), the ones that overcome (7), those that aren't cowards, those that believe, those that avoid unrighteous things like murder, sexual immorality, sorcery, idolatry and lying (8). Who is telling us these things? We find that in those same verses...The Alpha and the Omega (6), God and His Son (7). We can go here or many other places in the bible to find out who is going to heaven. It's not judgmental to let someone know what the Bible says.

We aren't the final authority, but we can find the answers we seek by studying what the final authority has given to us to be our guide. If you want to know who is going to heaven, just look in His book and He will tell you exactly who will and who won't be there. Do you know the way?

Men, what an awesome time we had at Sons of THE King! Thank you to all who helped put it together and all who came out! If you weren't able to make "To Be The Man" don't worry. Our next SOTK is on November 15th at 5PM, "To Be The Friend" is shaping up to be even more impactful than last week. We hope ALL men of the congregation can be there! We look forward to seeing you Sunday!

In Him,
Todd

DAILY BIBLE READING
GOAL: Read my Bible Each Day!

Plan # 1: Bible Reading Schedule by Todd Clippard

You can begin reading the Bible daily at any time during the year. If you miss a day, simply pick up where you left off. This schedule you will have read the entire Old Testament one time and the entire New Testament four times.

Day 232 – Psalm 120-129, Acts 25-28
 Day 233 – Psalm 130-136, Romans 1-3
 Day 234 – Psalm 137-141, Romans 4-6
 Day 235 – Psalm 142-146, Romans 7-9
 Day 236 – Psalm 147-150, Romans 10-12
 Day 237 – Proverbs 1-3, Romans 13-14
 Day 238 – Proverbs 4-6, Romans 15-16

Plan # 2 Bible Reading Plan by Dan Winkler:

A chapter each weekday can help make a "new you" this year.

259 Chapters in New Testament.

Up Close and Personal Sunday!

This Sunday will be our "Up Close and Personal Sunday"! This means the walls will be up in the auditorium for worship. The east side folks and the west side folks will join the central church for worship. We are asking everyone in the center to sit at a new place for this Sunday. Let's enjoy the fellowship, worship and new surrounding this Lord's Day.

New Series for Sunday Adult Bible Classes!

For the next quarter, September through November, we will change up our adult Bible classes on Sunday afternoons. Our theme will be "Spiritual Warfare". There will be three adult classes. They will be in the Commons Area, the classroom behind the old auditorium, and the classroom in the small auditorium. All you must do is pick a classroom you like. Kerry Hamlett, Harry Fuller and I will be teaching the series. Each month the teachers will rotate to the next classroom. My lessons will be about "Spiritual Warfare" in general. Harry will focus on "Spiritual Warfare in the Old Testament". Kerry will look at the "The New Testament and Spiritual Warfare". The devil is alive and well today. Join us as we study how to be victorious over him.

100 Years!!

As you probably know by now, next year we will celebrate our one hundred years as a church! During 2020, we want to do some special things to highlight this last century. On Monday night, September 30, we will have an organizational meeting to plan for these events. We will meet at 6 p.m. Mark the date and time on your calendar. We need all the help we can get.

Phillip
