DAILY BIBLE READING

GOAL: Read my Bible Each Day!

Plan # 1: Bible Reading Schedule by Todd Clippard

You can begin reading the Bible daily at any time during the year. If you miss a day, simply pick up where you left off. This schedule you will have read the entire Old Testament one time and the entire New Testament four times.

- Day 302—Jeremiah 51, John 1-3
- Day 303—Jeremiah 52, John 4-5
- Day 304—Lamentations 1-2, John 6-7
- Day 305—Lamentations 3-5, John 8-9
- Day 306—Ezekiel 1-3, John 10-11
- Day 307—Ezekiel 4-6, John 12-13
- Day 308—Ezekiel 7-8, John 14-16

Plan # 2 Bible Reading Plan by Dan Winkler:

A chapter each weekday can help make a "new you" this year.

259 Chapters in New Testament.

Plan # 3 Printed on Monthly B & A Calendars

The Right Example

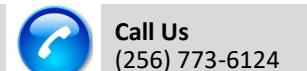

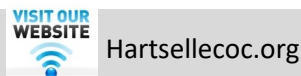

In my freshmen year in college, I decided I wanted to learn to play tennis. So, I enrolled in a tennis class. The teacher put us all in a classroom and for an entire semester told us how to play tennis with skill. We studied how to serve and the techniques of a backstroke. Materials on the proper footwork and body positioning were handed out to us and discussed. We became great tennis players by studying the game in that classroom.

No, that is not the way it happened. After some studying in class, the first thing we did was go to the tennis courts with tennis rackets and tennis balls; then the teacher began to tell us how to play tennis, demonstrating what she was saying. In other words, she was not only teaching us; she was also training us.

This has an application to parents. The Bible says, "Train up a child in the way he should go, And when he is old he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6)

This gives us the responsibility of not only teaching our children how to live, but training them also. Parents, this means that we must set the right example of how to live.

Barrier's Blog

Do you ever find yourself asking the question "Does He really mean it"? Many of us have found ourselves enjoying some of the things this world offers that we've been told God disapproves of. In our own self interests we ask that question "Does God really mean that?" and even when we know the truth we talk ourselves into believing WE are a special case. We continue on in what we know to be wrong for others, just not for us because "He surely doesn't mean it for me". It would be good for us to remember the example of some people from the Bible who thought, "Surely He doesn't mean it". Eve didn't believe He meant what He said. Lot's wife didn't believe what He said, in fact she became quite "salty" about it! Nadab and Abihu didn't believe what He said and many of us and others also show through our actions we don't either. We would do well to look at how things turned out for these people from the Bible, and others when we make decisions that impact our lives and others. Do you believe "He really means it"?

Remember that stew order pick ups are THIS Saturday November 2 at the Tabernacle.

Orders will be ready around 12:30.

Men, November 15th is only 2 weeks away.

We will gather at the HUGE pasture belonging to Deacon Matt Reynolds around 5PM for a fish fry and bonfire. We will continue to grow in faith, fellowship, brotherhood and accountability. In our spiritual sessions we will learn how to "Be The Friend" God wants us to be. If you weren't able to join us last time, don't miss out this time, hope to see you ALL there!

In Him, Todd
