100th Year Planning Session

This Monday night, November 18, we will have our second planning session for the things we want to do in 2020 to celebrate our one hundredth year anniversary. In our last meeting, we decided on the events we want to have, and committees were formed. If you were not at the last meeting, you still are needed. We can get you on a committee at this meeting. We will meet at 6:30 in the Commons Area Classroom.

Bible Classes – December 8

On Sunday, December 8, during our 5 p.m. Bible Classes, all adult classes and teenage classes will meet in the old auditorium for a special session. All children's classes will be as usual.

During this time, we will share our plans for the 100th year Celebration in 2020. Also, we will discuss plans that we have for Brazil in 2020. The Shepherds will take the last part of the class to bring us up to date on a few items.

Marriage Enrichment Sessions

During the month of December, I will be presenting four marriage enrichment sessions. These sessions will be on Tuesday nights at 6:30 p.m. here at the building. The dates are December 3, 10, 17 and January 7. Our theme will be "Loving You Through It". These sessions will be for anyone who wants to come. We also will advertise these sessions to the community. Our first session on December 3 will be, "You've Lost That Loving Feeling".

Barrier's Blog

Last week we began an article series based off of a football programs off season conditioning program called the 4th Quarter Program. The idea is to keep the football team in playing shape when they aren't playing. Wouldn't it be great if we kept that kind of determination to stay in "spiritual shape"?! So we began talking about a spiritual 4th quarter program. Last week we kicked it off with discipline. With all that being a Christian entails, having spiritual discipline is a must. Today we look at the second part of the program, commitment. The day each of us decide to follow Jesus we are making a commitment. It's the most sacred and important commitment we will ever make. The Bible makes it clear that this commitment can't be taken lightly! The Bible tells us to commit our way to the Lord (Psalm 37:5) to commit our work to the Lord (Proverbs 16:3) it tells us to commit to the very end (2 Timothy 4:7) it tells us to commit even when it's tough (Gal. 6:9) and it reminds us of God's commitment to us (John 3:16). These are just a few verses about commitment, but the Bible is clear, to be spiritually fit, you must commit! How committed are you to Him? Next week we look at another part of the program, toughness.

Men, Sons of THE King is THIS Friday starting at 5PM. We will eat around 6 and then have our spiritual session. Games, fellowship and brotherhood abound. This program is designed to make us stronger leaders for our church and our family. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to grow! Remember to bring a chair (and a coat, haha) to 415 McClanahan Street. See you Friday!

In Him, Todd
