Super Sunday!

Sunday week, December 15, will be our next super Sunday. Our worship will be at 10 a.m. Following our worship, we will have a fellowship meal together. The Shepherds are furnishing the meats. All you need to bring are the fixings. Also, I understand a special guest may show up to visit the children. After our meal together, we will assemble back in the old auditorium for the second service. Invite others to come and be with us for this special day.

Sunday Night Adult Classes

This Sunday night, all adult classes and the teenage class will meet in the auditorium for the 5 p.m. Bible Class. During this time, the Shepherds will share a little information with you. We will spend most of the time discussing the plans for our 100th year celebration in 2020. We have a great year planned for the church and you need to be present and be a part of it. These plans involve some special outreach to the community.

Marriage Enrichment Sessions

Our first Marriage Enrichment Session got off to a great start Tuesday night! We had 47 that attended. Our next session is this coming Tuesday night, December 10. We will begin at 6:30 p.m. The session will end at 7:45 p.m. Also, childcare is provided. This Tuesday night we will be into part two of, "You've Lost That Loving Feeling". This session will deal with how we can get that loving feeling back into our marriage.

Barrier's Blog

In my sermon Sunday afternoon I told a story about a preacher. For those who weren't able to be there, I will tell it again here. The preacher, in his older years, went to visit a new family at his congregation. While visiting, the family's young son asked him "Were you in the ark?" "No, I wasn't" was his reply. The little boy stared him down and said "Then, why didn't you drown?" The boy's concept of time was much different than the old preacher's! The point being, as far as the sermon goes, is that our concept of time changes as we grow older. However, no matter our concept of time we all agree that time is precious. How are you spending your time? We live in a fast moving world and spend a lot of time on a lot of things. The Bible tells us in Proverbs 16:9 that a man's heart plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps. If we aren't taking the time with God in study, worship, prayer and private time, are we allowing God to direct our steps or are we allowing the world and all of its distractions to drive us along the way? In James 4:13-14 we are reminded of how quickly time passes as we are told our life here is a vapor that appears for a little time. We have to take the opportunities to give God the time we so often set aside for ourselves. So, how are you spending your time? Filled with the hustle and bustle of this life without taking a minute to slow down or are you taking those available moments and growing closer to God while we have the time? We look forward to seeing you Sunday!
In Him, Todd
