100th Year Kickoff!

February 9 is the Sunday we will begin our celebration of our 100th year. We will have an open house from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. There will be displays of past and present works to share a little of the history of the church. This is a come and go event. Of course, you can stay and fellowship the whole time.

Heritage Christian University Dinner

February 25 is the date for the annual Heritage Christian University Dinner. This year, it will be at Beltline. Let Tim Tanksley know if you are planning to go. This is always a fun night of fellowship with other congregations and entertainment. Hartselle usually has the largest group present. This school is doing a great job of training young preachers.

Andrew Gourley is now a student at Heritage! We are certainly proud of this fine young man. Thanks to everyone of you who gave to make this possible for Andrew. He has the potential to be a great servant of the Lord. Andrew is preaching at Hanceville at the present. We will be blessed to have him speak for us on Easter Sunday, April 12.

January Birthday Celebration

This year, we are beginning a monthly birthday celebration for birthdays during each month. We will celebrate the January birthdays next Wednesday, January 22. The celebration will start at 6 p.m. with cake and ice cream! Come out and congratulate all those having birthdays in January. Remember, you will have one coming up in the coming months, and you will want someone to show up for you!

NOTES OF APPRECIATION

*To my loving family in Christ, I want to offer my sincerest gratitude to everyone at Hartselle for their encouragement, aid and love.
This church has had such a profound effect on my* life and words cannot express that properly. As I continue my journey into ministry I will always remember where it began: with my wonderful family here. Thank you.

Christianly love, Andrew Gourley

"There is a destiny that makes us brothers, no one goes his way alone; All that we send into the lives of others, Comes back into our own."—Edwin Markham

*Just a simple note of "Thank You" for the kindness you have always shown me, particularly the fruit basket and meal during the holiday season...also meals through the years. It is deeply appreciated.
Special thank you to John & Shelia Kyle.*

Sincerely, Bonnie Allen

Barrier's Blog

Sunday I was watching the AFC Divisional round of the playoffs.
There was about 10 minutes left in the first half and Houston was leading Kansas City 24-0. It was a great quarter and a half if you were a Texans fan, but not for long. The Chiefs stormed back to take a 28-24 halftime lead and went on to win 51-31! Not a game you'd like to re-watch if you're a Texans fan, but maybe so if you're a Chiefs fan. A Chief's fan can watch the first quarter and a half when things are going bad and just say, it's okay I can keep watching, because we win. Knowing the outcome makes life easier. It's the same with our spiritual life. In John 16:33 Jesus tells us there will be bad things to happen to us, but to be of good cheer because He has overcome the world. As Christians, we can go through tough times and say, that's okay I can keep going, because we know the outcome. Jesus has provided the way and prepared a house for us if we follow Him. How confident are you in life? If you know the outcome it just makes life easier!

Orlando Mission Trip: We thank you so much for all of the ways you supported our fundraising this year! We only have about $500 left to reach our goal. If anyone would like to donate monetarily to help us reach the goal, please let me know. If you ordered one of the church shirts from our last fundraiser, I will have them sorted and ready to pick up Sunday evening at church. Thank you!!

We look forward to seeing you Sunday!

In Him, Todd
