DAILY BIBLE READING GOAL: Read my Bible Each Day!

Choose from three plans:

#1: Daily Reading Plan by Todd Clippard
Begin reading the Bible any day of the year. If you miss a day, simply pick up where you left off. This schedule has you read the entire Old Testament one time and the entire New Testament four times in one year.

Day 93—Judges 13-14, Matthew 8-9
Day 94—Judges 15-16, Matthew 10-12
Day 95—Judges 17-18, Matthew 13-15
Day 96—Judges 19, Matthew 16-18
Day 97—Judges 20-21, Matthew 19-21
Day 98—Ruth, Matthew 22-23
Day 99—1 Samuel 1-2, Matthew 24-25

#2 Bible Reading Plan by Dan Winkler:
A chapter each weekday can help make a "new you" this year.
259 Chapters in New Testament.

#3 Printed on Monthly B & A Calendars

A Peace You Can't Explain

Paul writes in Philippians 4:6-7: Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. That phrase, "the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding" is such a beautiful thought. It is the peace we all are looking for in this life. Our problem is that we look for that peace in all the wrong places. We try so hard to find it in the things of this world. However, this peace can only come from God.

A beautiful thing happens when we put God as number one in our lives. We are then able to place the things in this life into proper perspective. These earthly things no longer possess us. Now, we possess those things! As a result, we enjoy them more than ever before because we now have them in the proper perspective.

Perhaps I can bring all of this together with a true story I heard many years ago from an older preacher. He was a Christian man who lived in a small Texas town at the turn of the 20th century. The locusts were swarming the fields in the area surrounding this small town eating everything in sight. This was before the days of pesticides, so the farmers burned fires around the edges of their crops to try to keep the locusts away. Everyone walked around with sadness upon their faces and gloom in their hearts because all crops were being eaten by the locusts. However, this Christian man showed no signs of sadness. He continued with his life as if nothing was happening! One day, a fellow farmer asked the Christian man how he could walk around with no worries while his crops were being consumed by the locusts. The answer he gave has been a blessing to me through the years. This man of God said, "A long time ago, I gave my God everything I had. I gave Him my crops, my land, my equipment, my house, and my bank account. If my God wants to take His grasshoppers and feed them on His land, that is His business!" He was a man who had his God and his possessions in the proper order in his life, a man who had, "the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding."

Barrier's Blog

Last week the state department of education cancelled school for the rest of the year due to the corona virus. Many students, parents and teachers are disappointed. Seniors in high school are especially saddened due to missing out on so many memories.

Soon after the announcement I saw the lyrics to "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" posted on Facebook. The lyrics made me think of the comfort God gives us during this time. The particular part of the song that I was inspired by is where we sing, "I sing because I'm happy". We can be happy even during difficult times! Much like the last two weeks here are five things I think we can get out of this song...

1. In times like these we really understand what Jesus meant in Matthew 6:19-21 (store up heavenly treasures)
2. Jesus is our constant (Hebrews 13:8)
3. We can find happiness in Him in any situation (John 16:33, James 1:23)
4. In Christ we are free from the things that hold us back from TRUE JOY (Psalm 34:19)
5. He is here for me (Deuteronomy 31:6)

In Him, Todd

LIVE STREAMING

Because of the Covid-19 Virus Restrictions on Gatherings and social distancing protocols, we must continue to worship together via Livestream on Facebook or our Website www.hartsellecoc.org for 10 am Sunday Worship Services and Livestream Bible Classes so that we can study the Bible together Sundays at 5 pm and Wednesdays at 7 pm.

Pray for our family members, friends and neighbors suffering spiritually, physically & mentally.

PLEASE Call the office or email: dreid@hartsellechurch.org with sick list, announcements/updates. Everyone does not see Facebook posts!
