"Give Wind and Tide a Chance to Change"

Admiral Byrd was an explorer of the Antarctic. On one occasion, he and his crew were locked in Antarctic ice on board the ship Bear. Those with him were becoming very impatient. He said to them, "Wait - give wind and tide a chance to change." Long years of dealing with that frozen region had taught him that you cannot always do everything instantly.

When things are going bad, and they do go bad for all of us at times, you cannot always change them instantly. We want things to happen instantly. We have instant tea, coffee, fast food, express lines, etc. and we want instant life changes. The first step is to recognize and admit that this cannot always be done. In other words, attitude will not change the undesirable happenings, but one can change their attitude toward them. They will change. Give wind and tide a chance to change. In the meantime, we do not have to be stewing. We can decide to make the waiting time constructive and creative. Don't you know that it would have been difficult for Paul - the man of action - to sit for years in Roman prisons had he not decided to do something else worthwhile while he waited? Many of his great epistles came out of the prison years.

Psalm 37:7-9 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass. <sup>8</sup> Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; Do not fret--it only causes harm. <sup>9</sup> For evildoers shall be cut off; But those who wait on the LORD, They shall inherit the earth

Barrier's Blog

Proverbs 3:5-6

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding;"

"In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths."

What are five encouraging thoughts we can get from these verses this week?

1. Go all in with God!
2. Trust in God is essential.
3. Sometimes our own judgment will lead us astray, so lean on God's Word.
4. Be led by God in ALL areas of your life.
5. He clears a path for us!

I hope everyone finds encouragement in this and that you all have a great week!

In Him, Todd

Thanks to our Shepherds and their teams who "Peeped" in on everyone last Thursday brightening our stay at home days. We've received many happy messages and Facebook photos from our Peeps!
