Sticking With Vitamins

I'm sure you have had a similar experience as I did some time ago. I went through a buffet line at a restaurant. While observing all the food that had been prepared, I noticed what seemed to be country fried steak. I love country fried steak! Even though the pieces of steak seemed rather small, I quickly filled my plate.

I took one bite. It was liver! I hate liver! As I struggled to swallow, I swore this would be the last time my taste buds would touch liver.

Now, I realize many people love liver. Being a preacher, I knew there was a sermon in this experience. In my opinion, liver and sin have a lot in common. First, the liver appeared to be a delicious piece of steak – it wasn't. Is that not true with sin? Sin often appears to be something wonderful – It isn't. Appearances are deceiving.

Second, the horrible taste of liver stays with you longer after it goes down. Likewise, the effects and consequences of sin often times remain with us long after the rebellion has ceased.

When it comes to sin, we must all resist. When it comes to liver, you do what you want. I'll stick with vitamins!

Barrier's Blog

There are a lot of Christians saying a lot of things these days. When we speak up we are setting an example. We need to always remember our example may be the most impactful sermon we ever preach.

Below is an article by Mike Riley that explains our example.

The story is told of a Christian high school senior who was honored as one of the best and brightest in his community because he provided a forceful demonstration of integrity.

When his school team was given the word "auditorium" in a regional spelling bee, he glanced down to ponder his response and noticed that the word was printed on the microphone stand. He called this to the attention of the judges who responded with a more difficult word. The young man did what he knew was right whether others noticed or not.

We don't know when our actions may become an example to others — we're always on display. But if we live each day to honor Jesus, our behavior will model His righteous life (Galatians 2:20; 1 John 2:5-6), no matter who is watching.

Uprightness and honor should be goals for Christians of every age. Paul told Timothy:

"Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity" (1 Timothy 4:12 NKJV).

As Christians, one of our goals in life should be to change the world around us for good while never compromising ourself — one person at a time (Acts 10:38 NKJV; cf. 2 Timothy 2:1-2 NKJV; 1 Timothy 4:16 NKJV).

O to be like Thee! blessed Redeemer,
This is my constant longing and prayer;
Gladly I'll forfeit all of earth's treasures,
Jesus, Thy perfect likeness to wear.
O to be like Thee! O to be like Thee,
Blessed Redeemer, pure as Thou art;
Come in Thy sweetness, come in Thy fullness;
Stamp Thine own image deep on my heart.

—W.J. Kirkpatrick

We look forward to seeing you Sunday!
