"Jesus Loves the Little Children"
Through the years, I have had the privilege of speaking in many rural and small-town churches. I have met some of the best people and developed wonderful friendships in these churches. One thing that is true about them is that most of the young people move away after graduating from high school. Subsequently, these churches are basically filled with wonderful older brothers and sisters. I have been in some congregations where I would just like to have heard one baby cry because there were no children. In my early days of preaching, crying babies bothered me. Having now visited so many places where there were no babies, I have changed my mind. I realize now how significant children really are to a church. Children give a church a mission, life, and a future.

In Luke 18:15-17, we see how Jesus loved the children. He rebuked the disciples for not wanting the children to come to Him. Speaking of children, Jesus said, "Of such is the kingdom of heaven." He gave children three precious gifts; time, touch and prayer. He never viewed attention given to them as unproductive. If the Lord values children that much shouldn't we? Yes, crying babies just don't bother me that much anymore.

Barrier's Blog

This Thursday the HYG will have it's first devo since the whole COVID-19 lockdown's started. We've had plenty of Zoom meetings, but being together in person is just better! There are several rules to follow to adhere to social distancing, so make sure to check out the FB page or the Remind text for those rules.

I was thinking that the rules we've been under for a while are sort of like our relationship to God. Some of the rules we don't understand, we don't necessarily like or don't want to follow them. However, we know that to do the right thing and follow the rules is the Christ-like attitude to have. In our relationship with Christ, there are a lot of things we must do to make that relationship with Him strong. We might not understand everything He asks us to do but He says, "if you love Me keep my commandments" (John 14:15). So we can gauge our relationship strength by how we follow His "rules". Where are you in following His commandments?

We look forward to seeing you Sunday!

In Him, Todd

OUR 2020 VBS will be DIFFERENT.

We need your help to make VBS packets ahead of time. If you can donate candy and Little Debbie Snacks, please bring them to the fellowship area Sunday, or drop them by the church office during the week.

Thank you for your help!
