Biting Yourself

Did you know that the one who acts out of anger is the loser? There is a fable about a young lion and a mountain goat who went to the same watering hole to quench their thirst. Arriving at the same time, they fell into a heated argument about who would be the first to drink. Soon, they became very enraged. Both were determined to resist each other to the death. Ceasing their strife to catch their breath for a moment, they looked up and noticed a flock of vultures hovering overhead, waiting for the loser to fall. Their quarrel was quickly resolved.

Many years ago, I was a struggling young preacher, and my income was quite small. During this time, our television had stopped working. Trying to save money, I decided that I could fix it myself. I diagnosed the problem to be the uhf tuner. Why I came to that conclusion I do not know. I went to a TV repair shop and bought a new tuner. I was thinking that anyone with even a small amount of common sense should be able to remove a tuner and replace it with a new one. All that I had to do was mark the wires on the old tuner and solder them back at the same location on the new tuner. This is exactly what I did, or so I thought. Having finished, I was ready for the moment of truth. I turned on the television and there was nothing! I became a little angry. So, I thought that I had put two of the wires in the wrong place. I changed them around. When I turned the television on this time, there were some sparks that came from the back of it. I became even more angry. In my anger I just started changing wires around everywhere. I turned the television on for the third time. You would not believe the sparks that shot out of that television! As my wife grabbed our dog and ran out the door, the television exploded! On that day, I learned the high cost of anger.

What do you do when you are angry? Someone has said, "Every time we get angry, we drive a nail into our own coffin." Well, it certainly happened to me. Didn't Paul say, "Be angry, and do not sin: do not let the sun go down on your wrath, (Ephesians 4:26)?" (continued)

OUR SYMPATHY

We extend our sincere sympathy to the family of Movlyn Roberson, who passed away Thursday, July 2. Please keep her family, including her niece, SyRhonda Smith-Tolbert (P O Box 422, Hartselle) in your prayers. Movlyn was the sister of the late Marty Eddy. Her Graveside Service was Monday, July 6, at Falkville City Cemetery.

We also extend our sympathy to Curtis Sampley in the death of his wife, Becky Sampley, and Angela & Gary Pittman, who used to attend here, now members at Beltline in the loss of her mother. There will be a private family burial with a memorial service later. Pray for these families in the time in their loss.

THANK YOU

I Thank the Lord Jesus Christ for loving me and that same love passes through my body in spirit for the love I have for my Church family at Hartselle Church of Christ, which I am proud to be a member of. Thank you all for your prayers, the cards, the food, but most of all the love I receive from everyone there.

Tim Milon

It is said that a rattlesnake, if cornered, will sometimes become so angry that it will bite itself. My friends, so it is with us. We think we are harming others, when in reality, we suffer the most. Anger has a way of biting back!

Barrier's Blog

While we are still experiencing an uptick in COVID-19 cases in our area it's very important to be safe and healthy! While we are still only having in person worship on Sunday morning we are blessed to be able to stay connected here at Hartselle! In addition to our live stream on Wednesday and Sunday evenings the Elders announced a Zoom Bible class starting in August. Contact Harry Fuller if you are interested in that class. We also have our Virtual VBS each Sunday night in July. I have been making 5x5 Devo's (5 points in 5 minutes or less) for the youth group but they are available for all to watch. We will continue to come up with ways to keep each other growing together, just make sure to get involved in the opportunities!

The Habitat For Humanity date was moved back again due to rain. If you signed up to help the new date is July 23rd, 7a-2p. We hope you have a great week!

We look forward to seeing you Sunday!
