2020 Ends — 2021 Begins

So many of you have given money, cooked, bought, filled food boxes and children's gift bags, provided holiday boxes for indigent inmates, given gifts, sent cards, helped, and donated your time and energy to make Christmas Dinner a special occasion for hundreds! We love and appreciate each one of you. We thank you for your faithfulness, generosity, love for one another and those in need and your willingness to give of yourselves in so many areas of the Lord's work. Now that it's 2021, remember to "Reach Out and Touch Someone." Let's bring others to Christ.

I wanted to share with you this letter the church received after the Christmas Day Food Delivery...

Dear Church Family,

I want to let everyone know how much I appreciate your labor of LOVE. For all the hard work and sacrifice you've given. Thank you beyond words.

It was delicious and it was so good to eat someone else's cooking. Your efforts, your input, the delivery of the meals: the young ones helping is so encouraging.

I hope you all had a wonderful Merry Christmas. I pray that your New Year will be full of abundant blessings of Health, Love, Peace, Joy and Happiness and so much all the more God has.

Since I've gotten older, I learned to appreciate the small things in life. I pray I never take life, family and all of the Lord's love and blessings for granted.

The Love of God exists in its strongest and purest form in the very midst of suffering and tragedy. —Suzanne Dale Ezell

Once again, thank you all for sharing and showing the Love of Christ to someone like me. You have made my Christmas beautiful. Amen!

We all need each other. With Christian Love, Alica Newsom

Phillip

Barrier's Blog

2021 is finally here! Many have been looking forward to 2021 because 2020 was such an incredibly hard year. When the year changed over from a "0" to a "1" it was like a new beginning.
New beginnings make me think of the story of "The Prodigal Son" from Luke 15. In this story we have a young man who wants his inheritance right now with no regard for the future.
His father grants his request and he goes away and wastes everything he's been given. When he comes to his senses his father forgives him and welcomes him back with open arms.
As we approach the new year we must look at it from a spiritual perspective. If we have done or said things that have held us back from God, it's time for a new beginning! Maybe we've made decisions without any regard for the impact it may have in the future as far as our relationship with God. Maybe we've hurt others or just shut God out. Now is a time of renewal. It's time to recommit to God. It's time to come to our senses! When we do that God will be waiting for us with open arms just like the father in the story of the prodigal son! Are you ready for a new beginning?

In Him,

Todd
