Barrier's Blog

Most of us know the story of David and Bathsheba. It's a sordid tale that's hard to forget! The part of the story we don't always talk about is what happened afterwards and what brought David back to God after sinning against him and covering it up. Nathan came to David in 2 Samuel 12, and told him a story that represented what David had done to Uriah (Bathsheba's husband) and David was angry at the man who had done these things that Nathan had described. In verse 7, Nathan tells David "you are the man", letting him know his sins weren't as secret as he'd thought. This made David face a reality that he had to make things right. In verse 13, he admitted his wrongdoing when he told Nathan "I have sinned against God". Why did David need someone else to point his sin out to him? We often don't see ourselves as the "bad guy" in any situation and convince ourselves our sins aren't really sins anyway. When this happens we fall deeper and deeper into sin and further and further away from God. This is what was happening to David. He needed Nathan to bring him to his senses. Without Nathan David may have never repented. In our life as Christians, we need each other as well. Our relationships have to be such that when we see a brother or sister going off course it's a given we are ready to right each others' ship. The Bible teaches us to edify, to look out for and to love one another. We need friends like Nathan, and we need to be friends like Nathan, to help each other when we aren't helping ourselves. Are you the kind of friend that will help others stay on course towards an eternity with God?

In Him, Todd
