Workday Saturday!

Do not forget our workday this Saturday beginning at 8 a.m. Bring tools for hauling and spreading mulch. Weed-eating and weeding also need to be done. We will attempt to move the canopy next to the garage across the street. Soon, we want to repair the roof and paint the garage. If we can get several folks out, it should not take too long to do all this work.

L2L

Our young people represented us well at the 2021 L2L Convention this past week in Atlanta. Inside this newsletter there is a summary of the accomplishments of those who participated this year. We are blessed to have such a large group of youngsters from the sixth grade down. They are going to be a blessing to this church for years to come.

Super Sunday!

Yes, we have plans for a Super Sunday in May! If the Covid numbers continue to trend downward, Sunday, May 23 will be the date. By then a good number of you will have been vaccinated. We will have a morning service with a meal afterwards. After the meal, we will have our second service.

See You Saturday!

Della Carmon needs prayers & help. Her wounds are worse, so she goes to the wound clinic weekly. She is scheduled for back surgery May 4 @ 5:30am. Someone needs to take her to and from the hospital. She also needs people to sit with her & provide meals through May 8. Please See Donna Glenn if you can help Della.

It's good to have Frank Thornton able to be back with us.

Leroy Baugas (Kaci Carpenter's dad) will be scheduled for surgery to attempt to improve the blood flow to his leg.

Tim Milon is looking forward to being back with us soon..

Barrier's Blog

Recently I heard a sermon about moral authority. The premise was that if there was no God, there would be no standard for moral authority. This is spot on. If you don't have God to gauge your moral compass how do you develop morals? Many people use many different ways, and none of them are a good guide. Some use their feelings, but the Bible tells us this isn't a good guide (Proverbs 14:12). Others use their conscience, but we know that isn't a good way either. Paul said his conscience was clear when persecuting the church (Acts 26:9-11). As one of my students said, a conscience can be corrupted. People use these and many other ways to develop their morals. The thing they all have in common is that any of these things: feeling, conscience, etc... can change on a whim. God's Word is unchanging and gives us a standard! His Word is the only authority the Christian has when it comes to our morals. This is because according to John 12:48, His Word is the standard by which we will be judged! For the child of God there is no other moral authority outside of God and His Word!

Where do you get your morals?

In Him, Todd
