Barrier's Blog

As my teacher friends began to clean out their classrooms last week there were lot's of things being given away. As they went through their belongings to clear out their classrooms for summer they found many things they didn't want. They found some things they had forgotten they were holding on to. Mostly they found things they didn't need any longer, things that were cluttering up all of the things they did need. Often that is the same process we go through in our spiritual lives. We commit to Christ and are ready for a new beginning. However there are things in our life we either aren't willing to let go of or we let them hang around ju..u..st in case we ever want to go back to them! This clutters up our relationship with God and makes it difficult to accomplish all that we can with Him. In the Bible it says to let go of things such as bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, slander and malice (Eph.4:31). These are the types of things we hang on to that prevent us from being the light that God wants us to be for the world! So let's see what is holding each of us back and make sure to do our own end of the year clean out. What are you holding on to?

We look forward to seeing everyone at our Family VBS June 14th-17th from 5:30-7:30!

Thanks for the Capri Suns, Bottled Water, Canned soft drinks and Individually bagged, cookies and snack cakes
