Down Memory Lane

There is no way I could list everyone who helped with our Down Memory Lane without missing a few names. So many of you stepped up to the plate to make Monday night a tremendous success.

There were those who worked on the outside of our facilities. Thanks to everyone who worked on the building, the garage and landscaping. Some much needed work was accomplished. The building and the grounds look great! Then, there were those of you who worked on the inside. Ceiling tiles were replaced. Rails were installed. Carpet was cleaned. Walls were painted. Bricks were replaced. We can't forget Karen Wilemon for always keeping our floors and building clean.

The displays were unbelievable. There is no telling how many hours went into all the displays that were throughout the building. They will be left up for a few weeks so the church can take the time to see and read them.

I sure hope you noticed the decorations. We are blessed with some talented folks who can put together such arrangements as we saw Monday night. Look around, you will probably see them for the next week or two.

Of course, you can't leave out the food people. Everyone enjoyed and talked about the sandwiches, desserts, and lemonade! It was great seeing those from our community and our church sitting at the tables and socializing.

The literature that we handed out was professional and well written. A beautiful trifold was made concerning the history of the Hartselle Church of Christ. Bookmarks were made and funded by a family in our church.

Barrier's Blog

Our life is sometimes riddled with disappointments. Some are big and some are small. Some shake the foundations of our life and some are just minor inconveniences. Then there are those that send us down the road to depression or other negative things. As a Christian how do we handle these disappointments? In some ways we have to handle them in much the same way as others. Seek help, reach out to others or find someone who has experience in the disappointment you're going through. One way we can help ease the pain of disappointment is to prepare for it. Jesus tells us in John 16:33 that we will go through difficult times but we can overcome it. If we wait until the bad times come to deal with it, it can be very tough. If we build our faith, even in the good times, when the bad times come we have that faith to lean on to get us through. Are you building up your faith for when the disappointments in life come your way?

In Him, Todd

Usually we have 5th Wednesday Night Singings; Wednesday Night, September 29th, ALL Classes will be in the Old Auditorium for our 5th Wednesday Devo! We will still sing as usual, but we will also have young men leading prayer, reading scripture and giving brief talks. Men/Young Men, wanting to lead a song, please give Todd your song & verses to be sung to be added to our list. Make sure to join us Wednesday, Sept. 29, to sing and support our young men as they grow in service to God!
