Women in the Bible

This past Sunday night in our adult Bible Class, we finished a series on "Women in the Bible." What made the series so unique is that each class was taught by a different man in the congregation! These men did a terrific job in presenting these lessons. Some of them taught an adult class for the first time! I also noticed that the class was pulling for each of these gentlemen and offering their comments.

Since there are so many women mentioned in the Bible, we are going to go back to this series in January. For two or three months, we will ask these brethren to lead us in a discussion of other women in the Bible. I sure hope you will see the need to be a part of these sessions.

Speaking of Bible Classes

On Wednesday nights, we are offering a variety of adult classes. There is the regular class that I teach in the old auditorium. The "Young at Heart" class meets in the Upper Room. This class is a very good class if you enjoy a lot of discussion. Also, there is the ladies' class in the Commons Classroom. I understand that class is also an excellent class. What a way to refuel in mid-week! You need to be taking advantage of these opportunities to spend time in God's Word.

Trunk or Treat

This Saturday afternoon, beginning at 5 p.m., we will have our annual Trunk or Treat. This will be in our north parking lot on Sparkman Street. Last year we had a tremendous crowd for this event. Dress up your trunk, buy some candy, and have some fun with us Saturday! This year, there will be no food given out. But there will be plenty of treats!

Phillip

Barrier's Blog

How do you use prayer? That might sound like a funny question, but I think that it is one we should ask ourselves. Do we only pray when things go bad? When we need something? When we want something? To praise God for His blessings? On behalf of others? Mostly physical needs vs spiritual needs? All of these are things we can and do pray for. What is your focus during prayer? Does the Bible give us a guide? I believe so. One of those places is in Matthew 6:9-13...

"In this manner, therefore, pray: Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done On earth as [it is] in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, As we forgive our debtors. And do not lead us into temptation, But deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

The Bible reminds us of WHO we are praying to. We are reminded to seek His will, to ask for our physical needs, to seek forgiveness, to deliver us from temptations, and to keep us safe from the enemy. It also reminds us of His power to be able to answer these prayers. We tend to focus on single minded things where God commands us to be well rounded in our prayers and that can include physical and spiritual needs. What are you praying about?

In Him, Todd

FIT DEVO

Kick-Off the new year early! Fit Devo begins Dec. 11th @8:30 AM in the Fellowship Hall! What is Fit Devo? It is a way to combine a spiritual workout with a physical one. Anyone 16 and over can participate. We will start with a devo and then split into a men/women division for the workout and come back together for a prayer to end things. This is a great opportunity to grow spiritually and physically. Nutrition info will be part of the program as well. Please sign the list in the commons area if you plan on participating. If you have any further questions please message Todd. Thanks and we hope to see you at Fit Devo!
