THE UNKNOWN WRITER

A few years ago, I started receiving these devotions by text. Sometimes they come daily, and sometimes there are two or three a week. Here is the thing, I don’t know who is writing them. It seems they are from someone who is a member of the Church of Christ. Not one time has the writer identified who he/she was. Yes, I could respond to the text or call the cell number of the text and find out who it is. But to me, the devotionals have much more meaning not knowing who the writer is. I thought I might share a few of them with you in the weeks to come. Here is one I received this week.

Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be wise in your own sight; if possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.
– Romans 12:16, 18

“You live in a fast-paced world that seems to be placing more demands on you with each passing year. People are hurrying everywhere, and often they are rude and short-tempered. It seems the very atmosphere of the world is charged with stress and pressure. But the good news is that as a Christian, you don’t have to operate on the world’s system, reacting like the world. The world responds to difficulties by getting upset, but Jesus said in John 14:27 that you should stop allowing yourself to be agitated, disturbed, and upset. You do this by learning to be adaptable. It’s not always easy to give in and do things differently, but it is easier than being upset and miserable. Learn to bend so you won’t break. Allow God to lead you out of a stressful lifestyle into one of peace and joy. Choose a great attitude and let your light shine for God.”

These are certainly words to live by!

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

★Wes Parker ★Sean Nowak ★Mitchell Swann

So far in our series on the fundamentals of Christianity we have looked at the belief in the deity of Christ, the belief in the inspiration of the Bible, recognition of the authority of scripture, membership in His church and worship. This week we finish up the series as we look at living righteously. After everything is understood and action has taken place and we have entered into a relationship with Christ, we have to keep that relationship going strong. The way we do that is by combining all of the things we have talked about so far by living as righteous a life as possible. We aren't talking about a perfect life, that's not something we can do, but a righteous life can be accomplished. In Titus 2:11-12 we are told that we can deny worldly living and live righteously. We are told how to do that in Romans 12:1-2 where we are taught to be transformed by Christ and not to conform to the world.. We are told to keep ourselves pure (1 Tim 5:22), flee fornication (1 Cor 6:18) and flee youthful lusts (2 Tim 2:22). So not only does the Bible tell us we can live righteously, it shows us how to as well. When we have our life set in the foundations of Christianity we are able to live the life God wants for us! Are you living righteously?

In Him, Todd

Every
2nd & 4th Sunday Evening
we will be staying thirty minutes longer to sing. We will practice old songs and learn new ones.

Don't miss our Women of the Bible Series on Sunday nights in the Old Auditorium at 5:00 pm.

Some of our own men will be presenting these lessons.
Let's give them our support.
