Where Are Your Children Learning About The Lord?

A couple of months ago our son Wyatt was able to go to Bible class for the first time. By nature of their age and abilities, Bible classes for babies (he was 5 months old at the time) do not involve much Bible time. They have fun, play, and sing songs. But it made Savannah and me so happy to drop him off and know that he was going to classes just like we did when we were growing up in church. His teachers would tell Savannah what they did in class and about the funny faces Wyatt always seems to make. It seems so small now, just a few songs and play time with the teacher, but I know having Wyatt in Bible class now is shaping his spiritual future.

Biblical education for our children is of the utmost importance. There is no substitute for teaching the Bible in your homes, but the learning that can happen in our church Bible class settings is one of a kind. Mike and Dawn Runager organize our Pre-K classes and do an excellent job; we can already tell Wyatt loves going. Mark and Marcy Reynolds do a wonderful job organizing our K-5th grade program, Sonlight Station. If you want to get your kids in class but don't know where to start, see one of them or myself and we can get you where you need to go. The world is not teaching your children about the Lord, but the Hartselle Church of Christ is!

Teachers Needed

This important ministry of training our future generations of Christians needs your help! We are in need of teachers for our Pre-K program. There is a sign-up list in the Commons Area and I hope that you will sign up. A small sacrifice of your time now can have an impact on someone's soul eternally!

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

There are a lot of issues going on in our country right now. A lot of divisiveness and hate. Many people have their opinions and they are based on their own set of morals. Why are there so many opinions? Let's look at some places that people get their morals and this might answer that question. We get our morals from friends, trends, family, government, work, feelings and conscience. These are just a few on a list that could be much longer. The reason these aren't a good place to set our feet with our morals is because opinions based on these things can change constantly because all of these things change constantly. The Christian MUST find their opinions based on God's unchanging Word! Not only is God's Word unchanging, but if we find our authority in that Word we are united in the eyes of those who may oppose us and may help bring them to Christ because of that unity! We can be confident in basing our moral authority in Christ because He has ALL authority (Matthew 28:18)! We can also be confident because Jesus delegated authority to His apostles (John 13:20) and gave them the Holy Spirit as their helper (John 14:26;16:12-13) to guide us into all things pertaining to life and Godliness (2 Peter 1:3)! Find your moral authority to base your stances on issues of this world based solely on God's Word! Are you under God's authority?

In Him,
Todd
