SUPER SUNDAY!

Our next Super Sunday will be Sunday week, August 28! Our morning worship will be a mixture of songs with our lesson. After worship, we will have a fellowship meal together. Somewhere between 12:15 & 12:30, we will have a devotional in the old auditorium. Invite your friends and neighbors to be with us. Bring enough food for your family and a few more.

I always enjoy our Super Sunday's. They are special to me. I hope they are to you as well. At the beginning of the year, we gave you the dates for each Super Sunday during this year. We do that so that you will not plan other things on those days. This is a great day of just being family. If you are not with us, your seat at the table will be missed. I will be looking for your lovely face on August 28!

Wednesdays in the Fall

Our summer at the tables is ending next Wednesday night. We will have a 5th Wednesday night singing August 31. Beginning the first Wednesday night in September we will go back to our regular adult classes. There will be a lady's class in the commons area. In the Upper Room, there will be a discussion class. I will be teaching on the life of Elijah the prophet in the old auditorium.

Our summer at the tables has been excellent! We all have enjoyed studying some of the questions that Jesus asked during His life. Thanks to all the men who were our table leaders. I have heard nothing but good things about these table leaders. Also, Todd, Justin and T.J. did a super job in writing our discussion sheets. Harry Fuller did a splendid job in bringing it all together. Lord willing, we will be doing the tables again, soon.

Danny Payne has 99% blockage in one artery. His doctors will decide at his next appointment, August 29, how they will treat it. Prayers are requested.

Jesse Owens has been moved to Magnolia Ridge Rehab Center in Gardendale, Rm. 339.

Matt Steele's back surgery today was a success. He was expected to come home this afternoon.

Tim Milon may be able to have a special shoe made with the hope of being able to keep his foot.

Janet Brown took a fall on Thursday, Aug 11. She is very sore and having trouble moving around. Prayers are requested.

Judy Voss, mother of Marcy Reynolds, is having heart valve replacement next Tuesday, August 23. Prayers are requested.

OFFICE SHORT STAFFED The office will be short staffed next week due to vacations. If you call and do not get an answer please leave a message. Someone will return your call. We will not have a Newsletter next week. Please note there are two lists for Birthdays and Anniversaries and two for Daily Bible Reading. One for each week.

BIBLE CLASS TEACHERS NEEDED Thank you to those who have signed up to teach the Pre-School this Fall. Hopefully we can get enough teachers to have a 9 month rotation so you will teach once every 3 weeks or so. See Mike or Dawn Runager for more information.

HELP NEEDED Elaine & David Bradburn, who are moving here and plan to worship with us, need help getting their house ready to move into. David has had four major surgeries recently and can't do a lot yet. If you are willing to help please see Jan Harris.

In John 13 we have the story of Jesus washing His disciples feet. In V.2 the Bible says...Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.

I underlined the most interesting part of that verse to me. It's so interesting because a few times before this in the Bible it says that Jesus's time had not yet come. Now the time is near and Jesus's public ministry is about to end. He chooses this time to teach His disciples about servant leadership. In verses 3-5 there is great detail in the description of what Jesus did. It was vivid in the mind of those who saw it, including the writer. It had an impact, it set a tone and it gave an example. We can only come to the conclusion that Jesus saved this lesson for this time because He wanted it fresh in the minds of His followers. He wanted them to remember how important being humble and serving others is. What a great lesson for Jesus to teach us. Even the One who came down from Heaven and helped create the world was willing to wash feet, something usually reserved for the lowest of household help. What a lesson! The question for us is, do we remember the lesson? Do we humble ourselves and serve others? Is Jesus our example, our standard bearer? Are you a humble servant?

In Him,
Todd

Pray for our family members, friends & neighbors suffering spiritually, physically and mentally. Cards of encouragement are always appreciated.

THANK YOU A GREAT BIG thank you to my dearest Brothers and Sisters in Christ. Please know that words are simply not sufficient to express my love and appreciation for you individually and collectively. The prayers, calls, and cards of concern were truly a blessing and YES, the food was absolutely delicious, and Kathy was surely appreciative as well.

In the love of the Lord, Talmage

P.S. I still have a way to go but with the Lord and you on my side everything will be alright.

Frank and Telula want to thank everyone who went to South Alabama to deliver school supplies.

Charles Lovett and Charles Crawford want to thank the ladies of the Congregation for supporting our prison ministry by providing food for our New Life Behavior students at North Alabama Work Release in Decatur. Our next 13 week quarter begins the last week of this month. All of this is under the oversight of Bro. Talmage Reynolds.

SYMPATHY We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Marie Harding who passed away last Friday, August, 12. She was buried Sunday, August 14.
