M&M

This Monday night, September 18th, we will be resuming one of the great ministries at The Hartselle Church of Christ: M&M! On these special nights we get together, share a meal, then participate in ministry as we serve our church and community together. Sign up cards are in the Old Auditorium on Wednesday nights and in the Gathering area on Sundays. Please let us know if you plan to be there.

Reasons to come to M&M

At M&M you meet the needs of others

At the heart of the gospel, the very heart of Jesus, is serving others. Jesus calls us to serve one another. When we choose to minister to others, we are choosing to live and look like Jesus. At M&M we have several opportunities for you to look like Jesus as you seek to meet the needs of others.

At M&M you meet the needs of the congregation

This week at the Hartselle Church of Christ we'll have 1 worship service, 2 gatherings for Bible class, 1 gathering for grief counseling, 3 days of our Lighthouse pre-school, a banquet for our Sr. Citizens, and an HYG Kids event. With all these activities, we have a lot of physical needs around our church building, grounds, and church bus. At M&M we offer the opportunity for people to help us in these physical areas. Without volunteers to help our congregation in this way, we would not be able to be the active church that we are.

At M&M your needs are met

The service at M&M is a wonderful thing, but maybe my favorite part of events like this is getting to be around my brothers and sisters in Christ. Sometimes we come to church services but never feel connected to the people we are worshipping alongside of. At M&M, as we serve alongside one another, we also grow closer to one another. We talk, laugh, and build relationships as we work. M&M meets the need you have for Christian fellowship. It is a beautiful thing!

I hope you make plans to serve alongside our Master this Monday night!

Justin

David Bradburn is home and doing well after hernia surgery last Monday.

Paula Burlingame, Jane Walker's mom, is having a procedure to repair a small hole in her heart on Friday, Sept. 16.

M&M We will resume M&M, Monday, September 19. If you have never joined us for this, please plan to come. We have several ministries from which you can choose to participate. As usual a delicious meal is provided, not to mention the great fellowship. Sign up cards are in the Old Auditorium on Wednesday nights and in the Gathering area on Sundays. Please let us know if you plan to eat and if you need childcare.

SPIRITUAL OVERTIME is this Sunday, September 18. Please plan to stay thirty minutes longer to sing praises to God. If you have a request please let Todd or Matt know so they can get it on the list.

SYMPATHY We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Franklin Morris, who passed away Tuesday, Sept. 13. Visitation is Friday, Sept. 16 at Peck Funeral Home 11:30-12:30 with a graveside service at 1:00 at Hartselle Memory Gardens.

PLANNING MEETING Ladies, if you are interested in helping with a baby shower for Miyo Nowak, granddaughter-in-law of Bobby & Nancy Fox, please meet in the Commons classroom, Sunday night after classes, Sept. 18 or see Beverly Summerford.

In Matthew 8:23-27 and Matthew 14:22-23 we are told of times when Jesus and His disciples were in the midst of a storm on the sea. In one, Jesus is sleeping when the story begins. In the other He walks through the storm on the water. Jesus is not worried in either instance. His disciples are another story. They are worried and afraid until Jesus calms them and the storms. This could've been a debilitating blow to the disciples. "How can I serve God and walk with Jesus with such little faith?" they may have asked themselves. Instead, they focused on Jesus and continued to do the work of the kingdom! This wouldn't have been possible if they had let those two moments of weak faith define them. Instead they learned from it and let their relationship with Jesus define them. The lesson for us is that no matter how bad it gets, no matter how far off track things may seem, don't let those bad moments define you. Get back on track with Jesus. Let Him lead you, and let that relationship define you rather than the failures in life! Are you defined by your relationship with Jesus?

In Him,
Todd

SONS OF THE KING Men, October 1 is the next Sons of THE King event. Mark your calendars! More information to come.

HELP NEEDED On September 24, David and Elaine Bradburn need some help moving. This is the big moving day for them and David can't help due to having hernia surgery. If you can help please contact the office and let Jan know and she will give you address info. Also feel free to speak with Elaine at church and she will fill you in on their specific needs. They are very appreciative of any and all help!
