No Tricks, Just A Treat

When you are planning an event, you hope for the best. You hope for a good turn out, you hope to have a lot of volunteers, you hope for great weather, and you hope that those who participate go all out. Besides overcast skies and a slight drizzle for a short time, our Community Trunk or Treat surpassed even the loftiest of expectations this week! There were so many people in attendance it was difficult to get an accurate count, but a conservative guess would be that we had over 700 trick or treaters and their families on our property Sunday night. We gave away thousands of pieces of candy and served 600 hamburgers and hotdogs.

What makes an event like this possible? You do! We had around 100 volunteers from church who decorated their trunks, prepped/handed out food, or helped with set up, take down, and logistics. An event on this scale could not happen without a church family that cares about putting their best foot forward to serve their community. Our volunteers did not do things halfway either. The trunks were creative and fun. You can check out many pictures from the event on our Facebook group. Below are the results for best decorated trunks:

1st Place – The Shaneyfelts- Ask them about their trunk's name :)
 2nd Place – The Holts with Jurassic Park
 3rd Place – Beth, Ashleigh, & Whitney with the Sanderson Sisters
 Honorable Mention – Karen and Tiffany Wilemon with Ghost Busters

A special thank you goes to Mark Reynolds, the mastermind behind the event! Mark is very talented and does a great job with all he does with the church; the trunk or treat was no exception. Thanks again to everyone who made this special. This event was a real treat and was a great reminder that we have a loving, and fun, church family!

RESPONSES

Angela Hargrove responded last Sunday morning confessing sin and asking for prayers. Let's all show Angela have much we love and appreciate her.

Elaine Bradburn also responded last Sunday morning asking for prayers for her back and to be baptized when she is able. Let's pray for healing for Elaine and let her know how much we care.

HYG/HYG KIDS

HYG and HYG Kids - join us for our annual Bonfire and Hayride at the Lee's Farm (1264 Parker Rd.) this Saturday, November 5 at 5:00pm. We will roast hotdogs and s'mores over the fire and have a Devo. Bring a lawn chair. Boys bring drinks and chips. Girls bring desserts.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

★Wes Parker ★Sean Nowak ★Mitchell Swann

I was recently reading a story about a man named Victor. Victor was a big time drug dealer in the 1990's. He controlled a massive territory on the West Coast. Nothing happened in his territory without his knowledge. He had all of the worldly power, money and prestige (in his world) that he could handle. His identity was found in these things and so was his faith. Then one day it all came crumbling down, he was arrested and put in jail. During his time in jail Victor felt empty, he knew something was missing. Eventually a new testament Bible found its way to Victor and he read it. He saw the error of his ways, he saw the life that Christ offered and he gave up his old ways. His identity and faith was now found in Christ! Victor has since been released from prison and travels across the country and world speaking to people about the gospel of Christ! What an amazing faith. In Matthew chapter 8 Jesus marvels at the faith of a centurion because of how great his faith is in seeking Jesus to heal his servant. We look at someone like Victor who is doing amazing things and marvel at his faith ever thinking we can do the same. We can! When our identity is found in Christ our faith grows, it becomes an amazing faith and through Him and with His help we can do amazing things and bring more people to Christ! Is your faith amazing or stagnant?

In Him,
Todd

Don't forget to set your clocks back one hour this Saturday night.
