12-28-2022

As we come to the close of 2022, let us look ahead to what the Lord has planned for us in 2023 and put our hope in Him.

Lamentations 3:22-24.
"The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. 'The Lord is my portion,' says my soul, 'therefore I will hope in him.'"

Happy New Year!

Elaine Bradburn is home from rehab.

Ann Cole is at home with COVID.

Pete Holley is in Cullman Regional and hopes to go to rehab when he is dismissed.

Romie Wilemon, Keith Wilemon's dad, is in North East Mississippi Hospital in Tupulo with congestive heart failure. Our prayers are requested.

Debbie Pressnell fell down the stairs on Christmas morning and broke her neck, nose and bones around her eyes. She did not require surgery. She will be in a neck brace for 6-8 weeks.

Pray for our family members, friends & neighbors suffering spiritually, physically and mentally. Cards of encouragement are always appreciated.

Happy New Year! NEW YEAR'S EVE BASH
Please join us New Year's Eve from 8:00 - midnight for a fun filled evening. We will have games, movies, football on TV, and a special performance by our own magician, David Thompson! Bring your favorite dishes to share. Let's ring in the New Year together. See Todd with any questions.

FOOD BOXES

All the cards have been taken for the South Alabama food boxes. The food is due back on Sunday, January 8. Thank you for all your help.

BAPTISM

We rejoice with Tyler Lamons as he was rebaptized last Sunday, December 25 to make sure he is right with his Lord and Savior.

FEEDING OF THE 100'S

Thank you to all who participated in the Feeding of the 100's on Christmas Day. We filled 600 plates and delivered 550+ to our community. The plates and pans left were taken to Hands Across Decatur to feed the homeless and less fortunate.

It's that time of year again. Time for those New Year resolutions! Most of these resolutions start from a good place. We just want to improve somewhere in our life. Saying it out loud or writing it down makes us feel accomplished. The problem becomes keeping those resolutions. Did we really think it through? Did we come up with a plan? When those resolutions go by the way-side a couple of weeks down the road it's usually because of a lack of preparation or desire. For a Christian we should at the very least try and improve our spiritual life in the New Year if we are willing to try and improve in other ways. We must be diligent to make sure our spiritual resolutions don't fall victim to lack of preparation or desire like many of our other resolutions. It is our relationship with God that has the true impact in our lives. Proverbs 21:5 says... The plans of the diligent [lead] surely to plenty, But [those of] everyone [who is] hasty, surely to poverty.

It's clear that if we are not diligent in our preparation we won't be successful but if we are we will reap the benefits of what we are trying to accomplish. So make those spiritual resolutions, prepare for them and watch that relationship with God grow in abundance this year!

In Him,
Todd
