Super Sunday With A Twist!

On January 29th we have a SPECIAL Super Sunday! We will have our usual Super Sunday style worship at 10:00am. Our lessons for the month of January so far have been on how we can "Love This Church." During worship on the 29th we will finish out this series. Our worship on this morning will be designed to be very encouraging, so I hope you make plans to be there for it and to also invite some guests to join you. Unlike our usual Super Sundays, we WILL NOT be having a meal after our morning services. This is due to....

Phillip's Retirement Party

The 29th is a Super Sunday because we will be honoring a Super Preacher! Instead of the usual Super Sunday meal following morning services, we will gather back at the church building at 4:00 pm to honor the one and only Phillip Hines and his retirement from ministry. Everyone is invited and we hope you attend and help make this a special afternoon for Phillip and Julia. Phillip picked the menu, and he chose a fish fry! Fish and fries will be provided. There is a sign-up list in the commons area for other items.

M&M

M&M returns this Monday, January 22nd. If you've never attended one of our M&Ms, come see what they are all about! These special ministry nights are a great opportunity to get to know others better and to also Love This Church. We will eat at 6:00. After dinner we will have a short Bible thought, and then work in different ministries. In 2023 we are wanting to expand the ministry opportunities that we offer. For January, we will have mostly the same lineup we have offered in the past; however, I would like to get some feedback and ideas on some different opportunities for the future. So if you have some ideas, come ready to share! I hope you make plans to join us this Monday! Sign-up cards will be available tonight and Sunday.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all who filled the food boxes for South AL. The boxes have been delivered to Selma.

As children of God we have all been given a calling, a mission. I like to call Matthew 28:18-20 our mission statement, go into all the world teaching, preaching and baptizing in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. In Exodus 3/4 God gives Moses a calling, to go to Egypt and free the Israelites from the bondage of slavery, much like our calling to seek and save the lost. I think we can relate to Moses because often time when we are presented with opportunities to serve we do what he did, make a bunch of excuses. The first excuse Moses gave was "who am I"? He was saying what some of us say, who am I to do this job, I'm not a teacher or a preacher I'm just a "fill in the blank excuse". I think this happens because we find our identity in the things we do or the things we like and therefore don't want to put forth the time and effort it takes to serve God. Maybe if we found our identity in Christ as sons and daughters of the King we would be motivated to be workers for Him instead of excuse makers. Are you serving Him when opportunity is there?

In Him,
Todd

THANK YOU

Dear Church Family,

Thank you for the many thoughts, prayers, phone calls, food, cards, and flowers sent to us during my dad's illness and passing. All these gave us a pillar of strength to lean on. It is so wonderful to be a part of such a loving family.

The family of Romie Wilemon

Thank you for the good food you shared with us during the holiday. We enjoyed it very much. Also, Mr. Frank, thank you for the Rotisserie chicken and fruit basket - you always remember us. Thanks again.
