New Year

2023 is here, and yes, it still has that new car smell! The first weeks of the new year are always filled with such promise. I am not typically one to set resolutions, but still every year I get excited around this time with the thought of a fresh year. I look at the 365 days before me and wonder what things in my life will have changed by December.

With the full year laid before us I also wonder what all it holds for our church. I know there will be plenty of good and plenty of challenges. I know there will be change. There will be some change we know is coming, and some that we will be blindsided by. There will be plenty to celebrate in 2023, but also there will be times of sorrow. While we cannot always control the course or events of our lives, we can choose to rely on the One who is sovereign all.

This 2023, my prayer for you is that through all the highs and lows you trust in the Lord. I pray that you seek out the people of the Lord in times of celebration, and that you seek out the comfort of the church in times of mourning. While many things are unknown about the future, I know the Lord has smiled upon us in the past and will continue to do so in the future. For that, we praise Him!

M&M

Our first M&M of the new year will be Monday, January 23rd. With the church theme of, "Love This Church" I cannot think of a better way to live out our theme than by volunteering at our M&Ms. Be on the lookout for sign-ups over the next few weeks.

FAMILY RETREAT

If you are interested in going on the Maywood Family Retreat this year please meet in the Commons classroom after the morning service, January 15. See Todd with any questions.

In Hebrews 10:23 the Bible says...²³ Let us hold fast the confession of [our] hope without wavering, for He who promised [is] faithful... This is such a reassuring verse in a sometimes confusing and scary world. It reminds us that the same God who sent His Son to die for us, the same God that loves us and wants the best for us is faithful to us! Our hope is built in Him, the hope of an eternal life with Him. We can hold onto that hope in all situations that scare us or worry us because of the fact that he is faithful to that promise of hope! He is the author of hope and gives that foundation to stand on in good and tough times alike. As we go into the new year and things get a little bumpy for some of us, just remember it may be a new year or a new problem, but it's the same God that has gotten us through difficult things before! Is your hope found in Him?

In Him,
Todd
