Maywood Family Retreat

You should come to our Maywood Family Retreat. It is next weekend, March 10th-12th, and you will be so glad you decided to attend. It is for all ages and all types of families. Below I've got the top 5 reasons you should come.

5. Nature – God created a beautiful world, come experience it at retreat! You can hike, sit by a fire, or relax by the pond. Distractions from the outside world are minimal. Retreat is a great place to disconnect from the busy world and connect with God's creation.

4. Fun – Retreats are always a blast. Whether you are playing cards, basketball, or just chatting in a rocking chair or porch swing, good times are being had all weekend.

3. Deeper Faith Family Connections – Retreats are a great time to grow closer together as a church family. You'll laugh and reminisce about the things you see and do for years to come. Just ask those from last year who witnessed a certain unnamed elder cheat in a game of archery tag.

2. You Are Wanted – "The more the merrier" is a fitting expression for church retreats. Young or old, single or married, kids or no kids, we want you to come and experience retreat.

1. Rejuvenation – Retreats are a time of rejuvenation. I think you'll find that through this weekend you will feel a sense of spiritual renewal. They are called "retreats" because we are retreating from the world. We are escaping the world's temptations, problems, weights and worries, and focusing on our church family and our relationship with God. Throughout my years in ministry, I've been on more than 30 retreats, and every one of them I have left with renewed purpose and love for our God.

There is an information sheet in the commons area, as well as a sign-up sheet if you decide you want to go. If you have any questions, see Mark Reynolds or Tim Brown.

When I was growing up I really loved watching pro wrestling. I had my favorites like Hulk Hogan, Bret "The Hitman" Hart and "Stone Cold" Steve Austin. When I was really young I thought it was all absolutely real. As I got older I still was drawn in as if it was real but I knew it was predetermined. The physicality may have been real but you pretty much knew the outcomes. I think it's kind of the reverse in our walk with God. As a child you may look at it as something that's not as real as everything around you, just stories. As you grow older and see the evidence and come into faith on your own, you realize the realness of a relationship with God. Even though our outcome isn't pre-determined, God has already determined how to come into a relationship with Him that will last forever. The Bible tells us exactly what we need to do, the gospel teaches us how it was accomplished. The only question becomes is it real enough to us to put in the effort to go through what God has instructed us to do? Is a relationship with God real enough to you to work towards heaven?

In Him,
Todd

Thank you to everyone for the cards, messages, food and your prayers during my recent hospital stay and recovery at home. Each and every kindness was so much appreciated.

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for all of your prayers, calls, texts, delicious food, visits and encouragement. You are all an amazing group of people. I'm blessed to be a part of this wonderful church family. Thank you again for all the love and encouragement during my surgery and recovery.
In Christian Love, Donna Hughes

The family of Jesse Owens would like to thank all of the kind ladies who prepared food and brought it to his house. His memory is lapsing, however, he always remembers how well the "Church ladies" can cook!

To my Church Family,

Thank you again for the prayers, calls, cards, visits, and goodies! I truly appreciate you remembering me! The Hartselle church is a wonderful, loving church family!

With a grateful and loving heart, Guy Brown

Church Members,

We at North Alabama DOC appreciate your generous donation of hygiene items. These items help the inmates that have no outside support get badly needed hygiene items every other month. Thank you again for your caring heart filled with love for those that need our help. A special thanks to Charles Crawford for his time teaching in the prison. The inmates are learning and sharing about God's will in their lives.

Thanks & Blessings, Chaplain David Varner
