Can you believe it's already time to be going back to school? Summer break, as it tends to do, has flown by. There are a lot of things to love about summer break for our families: vacations, summer camp, family reunions, pool days, Vacation Bible School, ball tournaments, etc. These are all great reasons to love summer break and to be sad that it's coming to a close. However, part of me is happy to see it winding down. Each week during summer we have so many that are out of town for vacations, ball tournaments, or family reunions. While I am happy that our physical families have those opportunities during summer break, I am so glad that our church family can be back to some normalcy with the school year starting back.

In case you didn't know, you are SO important to our church family. When you and your physical family are not here our church family is not complete. When you are not here our church family feels like something important is missing. I say this not to guilt anyone taking time to leave town with your family. That's good and important for you to do! I say this only to remind you that you are both loved and needed by this church family. So, this week we are not only heading back to school, but with summer break coming to a close we are also back to being our whole Hartselle Church of Christ family!
