Super Sunday & Life Together

One of the blessings of being part of the Lord's church is that we are more than people who simply gather in the same room once a week. We are a family. We share joys and burdens, encourage one another, pray for one another, and walk together toward heaven. Today is one of those special opportunities to strengthen those relationships as we enjoy our quarterly Super Sunday.

Following our morning worship, we will share a fellowship meal together and then return for an afternoon devotional. These gatherings are always a wonderful reminder that Christian fellowship extends beyond a handshake before service or a brief conversation in the hallway. Around tables and through conversations friendships are strengthened.

If you are newer to our congregation, Super Sunday is an especially good opportunity to get to know others. We hope you will stay, enjoy the meal, and spend time visiting with our church family. One of the best ways to feel connected to the body of Christ is simply by spending time with the body of Christ.

As we enjoy fellowship today, we are also looking forward to beginning a new sermon series next Sunday, June 7, entitled "Life With Others." The book of Proverbs has much to say about the relationships that shape our lives: friendships, family, neighbors, mentors, and even those relationships that challenge us. Over the coming weeks, we will explore God's wisdom for living faithfully and wisely with the people He places around us.

What better way to prepare for a series on relationships than by spending today strengthening them? May God bless our time together, both in worship and fellowship, as we seek to grow closer to Him and to one another.

-Justin
